

May 425

Theodosius II's forces installed VALENTINIAN III at Ravenna, where the usurper JOHANNES was killed.

VALENTINIAN III was only 6 yrs old, and real power was in the hands of GALLA PLACIDIA and the general AETIUS

425 AD

The Romans, walled it in to defend Carthage.

The Goths appeared before the walls of Arles. With this the Goths began their regular marches to the Gallo-Roman Capital but the city was never taken nor the Foedus ever broken.

In 425 they were intercepted by AETIUS. With his Hunnic mercenaries AETIUS established a barbarian equilibrium in Gaul during the next decades which worked remarkably well

425-455

Rome

Valentinian III
emperor in west

425 BC (Oct 21)

Eclipse of Moon

425

Ez Israel

Jew-Hent

Patriarchate was abolished

c425

1912 Dates J-BK

354-430

St. Augustine

Famous scholar and preacher.

Born near Carthage.

Teacher in Rome.

386- He was made priest

Was made bishop of Hippo in Africa

Wrote "Confessions" and "City of God."

425

Angles, Saxons, and Jutes
invade Britain.

425-450

Galla Placidia at Ravenna.

425-455

1912 Dates J-BK

Western Roman Empire

VALENTINIAN III was emperor.
The government was in the hands of his mother PLACIDIA as regent - at first.

425

Valentinian III was Emperor
of West (to 455)

Raid by Angles, Saxons, and Jutes on Britain

425-455

born 419?

died 455

VALENTINIAN III was grandnephew
of Valentinian II

425AD

Valentinian III, Western Roman Emperor under guardianship of his mother Galla Placidia.
He was born 419AD.

475AD

Barbarians settled in Roman Provinces: Vandals in Southern
Spain, Huns in Pannonia,
Ostrogoths in Dalmatia
Visigoths and Suevi in Portugal
and Northern Spain.

425

West Empire

Valentinian III became emperor of West.

425

the University of Constantinople
was organized.

425-455

Valentinian III (in West)